

Staying home doesn't mean you can't enjoy beautiful art or visit museum exhibitions. The Museum of Art and Archaeology presents another in a series of online exhibitions of past and current gallery exhibitions, as well as new, born-digital exhibitions. And we look forward to welcoming you back to our galleries as soon as permissible.

NEW Online Exhibition

Two of the more remarkable and distinctive civilizations that dominated the Peruvian coast in the years before the Inka empire expanded its hegemony all along the coast were the Chimú and Chancay. Both arose in the period from 900-110CE, and both ultimately gave way to the Inka in the middle 15th century.
