Staying home doesn’t mean you can’t enjoy beautiful art or visit museum exhibitions. The Museum of Art and Archaeology is launching online exhibitions of past and current gallery exhibitions, as well as new, born-digital exhibitions. And we look forward to welcoming you back to our galleries as soon as permissible.

In 1971, Salvador Dalí created a suite of photoliths entitled Memories of Surrealism. This online exhibition includes twelve works from that collection, which were on display in the Museum’s galleries, and includes three prints that were not in the focus exhibition. An autographed copy of the Dalí: Memories of Surrealism portfolio is also included. These images are exemplary of the artist’s symbolism and surrealism, challenging the viewer’s sense of the “real.”
