Staying home doesn’t mean you can’t enjoy beautiful art or visit museum exhibitions. The Museum of Art and Archaeology presents another in a series of online exhibitions of past and current gallery exhibitions, as well as new, born-digital exhibitions. And we look forward to welcoming you back to our galleries as soon as permissible.

Examining depictions of African-American family life in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries, Picturing Black American Families presents photographs drawn from three remarkable collections preserved here at the University of Missouri. Two of these collections are held at the Museum of Art and Archaeology, and the third is in the archive of the Missouri Photo Workshop at the School of Journalism. The selection of images captures both continuity and change in local communities, portrayed within the more intimate setting of daily family life.

Curated by Alisa McCusker

Website: http://maa.missouri.edu