

Kids Series World of Art

Sketching

Tuesday, June 4, 2019

2:00–3:30pm

Sketching in the galleries led by Museum Docents

Experimenting with Color

Tuesday, June 18, 2019

2:00–3:30pm

Explore the spectrum of colors in the Museum's galleries, then experiment with some techniques to create your own colorful works of art.

Egypt: Mummy is the Word

Tuesday, July 16, 2019

2:00–3:30pm

Travel back in time to Ancient Egypt to marvel at the stylized animal-headed deities and monstrous creatures that were both revered and feared there. Then, make a mask of your favorite god or goddess—in your own style.

Persistence of Myth

Tuesday, July 23, 2019

2:00–3:30pm

Mythology is everywhere in the Museum. Let's find stories in art together and create a portrait of a hero or god from your favorite myth.

Who Wants to Be an Archaeologist?

Tuesday, July 30, 2019

2:00–3:30pm

Learn what archaeologists do and find, and then and then try excavating your own "dig" and uncovering a "treasure" to take home.

Hold Everything!

Tuesday, August 6, 2019

2:00–3:30pm

Learn about all the different containers that exist from antiquity to modern times. How were they made and in what different ways could their shapes have been used? How were they decorated? Then create one of your own.
