

Kids Series World of Art

Join us online via Zoom!

True Colors

Saturday, June 13, 2020

2:00–3:30pm

Explore the spectrum of colors in the Museum's galleries. Then, make your own paints using colorful materials you find in nature or your kitchen.

Strike a Pose

Saturday, June 20, 2020

2:00–3:30pm

Explore the art of the pre-modern selfie: the portrait. Then, create a portrait of someone living in your house.

Lions, and Tigers, and Griffins—Oh My!

Saturday, July 18, 2020

2:00–3:30pm

Learn about the Museum's collection of real and mythical animals, then invent a creature of your own.

Who Wants to Be an Archaeologist?

Saturday, July 25, 2020

2:00–3:30pm

Learn about what archaeologists do and find. Then, explore your home for archaeological tools and perform your own excavation in your house and backyard.

Mix It Up!

Saturday, August 1, 2020

2:00–3:30pm

Not all art is made using a singular medium. Learn about the Museum's mixed-media collection, then make your own collage.

Programs presented by Elizabeth Wolfson, PhD in Art History and Archaeology and instructor at Atelier School of Creative Learning.
